

Recording the Video

Before you begin, let the person know

- + They can talk as much or as little as they want
- + They can use Chichewa or English, though English is preferred
- + They can record where ever they feel most comfortable
- + They should tell the truth, even if they think it is less compelling

Video checklist (required)

- + Crew member introduces themselves
- + Thank you with a big smile
- + Nice cover photo of them smiling
- + Pics/video of the thing they are asking for (at least 3)

Video checklist (optional)

- + Crew member states what they are asking for
- + Pics/videos of children
- + Pics of the house from afar

When you have video/pictures of everything from the checklist, you are done! You now have everything you need to put together a great video!

Each finished and edited video will roughly follow this outline:

1. Crew member introduces themselves
2. What they are asking for
3. Photos/videos of the problem
4. Crew member saying thank you with a big smile

1. For a crew member that does not speak English well, which of the following are possible options for filming their video.

Check all that apply.

- ☐ They speak in Chichewa while someone else translates
- ☐ They just introduce themselves and say thank you
- ☐ Practice with them until their English is good enough to record
- ☐ Get a photo of them smiling and a video of them saying thank you

2. How long should the final edited video be?

Check all that apply.

- ☐ 15 seconds
- ☐ 30 seconds
- ☐ 45 seconds
- ☐ 1 minute
- ☐ 1 minute 15 seconds
- ☐ 1 minute 30 seconds

3. How much video can you film of the crew member?

Check all that apply.

- ☐ None
- ☐ 15 seconds
- ☐ 30 seconds
- ☐ 45 seconds
- ☐ 1 minute
- ☐ 1 minute 15 seconds
- ☐ 1 minute 30 seconds
- ☐ more than 1 minute 30 seconds
