

The Internet

Wednesday February 23, 2022

Review

- What is a web browser? When would you use it? What is the difference between it and a application like Word?
- What is the difference between a “Link” and a “Bookmark”?
- What is the difference between a Chrome “Tab” and a “Window”?
- When you type a URL in the URL bar, we see two options below. One says “Google Search” and the other does not. What happens when you select each of these?

Internet Scavenger Hunt (a game in which participants have to collect a number of miscellaneous objects)

1. Go to the “Tiko Computer Class” page you bookmarked. How many rows are in the table on the page? _____
2. You can search Google using full sentences. Try typing “What time is it in California?” into the search bar and press “Enter”. What does it tell you? _____
3. Go to gmail.com and sign in with your gmail email account. Send an email to Rey at purple4reina@gmail.com . What word does he reply to you? _____
4. Open a “New Tab” in Chrome. Go to gmail.com, who is signed in? _____
5. Open a “New Window” in Chrome. Go to gmail.com, who is signed in? _____
6. Open a “New Incognito Window” in Chrome. Go to gmail.com, who is signed in? _____
7. Close the incognito window and return to Chrome. Sign out of your gmail account. Go to gmail.com, who is signed in? _____
8. The website wikipedia.org has a wealth of information on just about everything you can think of. Look up the wikipedia page on “fodder”. Name 5 different plants specifically grown for fodder. _____
_____
_____
9. When you hover your mouse over one of these types of plants for fodder, what happens? _____
_____
10. Open the wikipedia pages of each of the types of “Clover” used for fodder in a different tab. How many tabs do you now have open? _____
11. Search for “translate english to spanish”. How do you say “Good morning how are you today?” in Spanish? _____
_____
12. Open your Chrome “History” by clicking the : in the top right then selecting History. What was the URL of first webpage you visited today? _____
13. Search for “Chiwawa” in Google. What does it give you? _____
14. Near the top of the search page you will see written “All Images Videos News Maps More”. Click on “Images”. Download your favorite image. Where is this file saved on your computer? _____
_____
15. How much are 250 Japanese Yen worth in Kwacha today? _____